

Internship: Communications

streetfootballworld is a social profit organisation that promotes positive change through football. Founded in 2002, the non-governmental organisation is a leading contributor to the field of Development through Football and works toward social change on a global scale. The streetfootballworld network connects over 80 organisations worldwide that use the world's most popular sport to address social issues.

streetfootballworld interns have the opportunity to interact with key individuals and organisations in the field of Development through Football and enhance their skills and personal profile while working in a young, international team.

We strive to ensure that our internships are meaningful for both parties. All positions include an introduction period in which intern and manager work together to define the specifics of the job profile, which is then followed by regular evaluations.

Details:

- Start: end of September
- Duration: 4-6 months
- Location: streetfootballworld, Berlin
- Who: University students
- Remuneration: 400 EUR/month

Specific tasks:

- Writing and editing press documents, short articles, etc.
- Website maintenance
- Research
- Photo management
- Preparing presentational material and documents
- Event management support
- Administrative tasks

Requirements:

- Very good knowledge of German and English, ideally knowledge of another language as well (Spanish and French preferred)
- Editing and journalistic skills
- Understanding of the German and global media landscape
- Good knowledge of current PC software (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Photoshop, etc.)
- Attention to detail
- Ability to work with content management systems

Please send your application, including cover letter and CV, to Deb Ain (ain@streetfootballworld.org).